RE: YOUR INVALUABLE COUNSEL and MY THANKS TO YOU

Dear Mr. Raynack.

Just kidding....it wouldn't be a communication from me without misspelling your name. This letter is written with one purpose in mind: to express my appreciation to you as a lawyer and a friend. I have had recent concerns where I needed legal representation I could trust to be top shelf. As a Criminal Lawyer, I have encountered many, many lawyers in my practice. I have seen the best and worst. When I needed the best assistance, only one name came to mind. Daniel Raynak. Thank you for being there when I needed help.

I know you hang many of the thank you cards you get in your office as a reminder to yourself of what its all about. I would be proud it you added mine to that collection. When I thought I was wrongly being manipulated by the system, I turned to you...and you solved my problem. You're a lawyers lawyer.

You are a great lawyer. You are an equally great friend. In my eyes...you're the top criminal lawyer in the game...and that's coming from....respectfully and laughingly...your "competition". Ha! You are what the rest of us strive to be. A lawyer whose talents are respected and feared by the prosecution...and you share your assistance with other people like me. At a time in my life marked with upheaval, you made my life measurably better. Cutting the bullshit. Thank you. If I can carry your bags or do any manual labor, or anything else....hit me up. I love ya brotha.

WITH RESPECT AND THANKS.
