

Dear Dan, I can't say enough. Thank you for what you did for me. I am very grateful to you.

I am doing well working in the upholstery shop for Arizona Correctional Industries. I wrote to my former supervisor and he wrote back telling me that he'd be glad to rehire me once I am released.

I feel very fortunate to have people in my corner. I will continue to praise you and your work throughout my life to those that may need your help.

I'll never forget how you stood up for me to defend me against those who fought so hard to paint me in the worst possible light.

I know I am not perfect, but I know there is good in me. I look forward to living the rest of my life in the best possible way free from prison.

I hope to see you again someday under better circumstances to thank you personally.

Sincerely yours,

Tom
